PREFACE

Native Education in Alberta: A Selected Bibliography was prepared in response to requests primarily from students for information pertaining to Native Education in Alberta.

This bibliography is therefore oriented towards research and as such contains a sample of references reflecting contemporary issues in Native Education in Alberta. The citations were selected from newspapers, journals and government publications, and is certainly not a comprehensive listing of all available sources for research on the topic of Native Education.

This reference guide will be updated periodically and contributions from readers would be most welcomed.
